The Guest of Honour Shri Shri Padmanav Chakaravarty in his speech thanked the College for inviting him to be a Guest of Honour for this event. He also congratulated the graduates for their hard work and success. In his speech he has specially focus on the importance of vocational trainings and skills as job oriented type of education. Thus, he encouraged the students that after their graduation they should not only think about government jobs or feel jobless but they must take up various skill training programmes to become a productive members of the society.

Report by the Principal:

The Principal before delivering the report on the activities and academic achievement of the college has at the outset extend his gratitude to the Chief Guest, Guest of Honour and other invitees for accepting the college invitation to grace this special occasion. While delivering the report on the academic performance of the college, the Principal has mentioned that the college is striving towards excellence and the testament to this was the academic performance of the college who in the academic year 2022-2025 for under graduate has secured a passed percentage of 94.18% and for the Post graduate during the academic year 2023-2025 has secured a 100% passed percentage. The college has not only made it possible for students to pass but many of them has done really well by securing first class and some of them even got to the University top ten ranks.

Graduation address:

The Chief Guest at the outset expressed his sincere gratitude to the college for invitation to grace the occasion as the chief guest. He had especially expressed his joy and happiness for through the college graduation ceremony he was able to don the gown which is a symbol of achievement and success after years of hard work and dedication. In his speech the chief guest emphasized on the needs among graduates to understand that there is no thing easy in life, life is a journey of struggle and hard work. He has also stressed that each graduates must understand their talents and interest in life, they should want to become some body just by imitating others but to focus on their interest because it is only when they engage in something they love to do they can really invest their energy and strength and then they will enjoy their success.

Book Release:

Before the programme concluded, the Chief Guest released the book entitled "Implementation of NEP 2020 in Higher Education, A Case of Jaintia Hills" authored by Dr. P Nongtdu and Dr. (Mrs). Ibakordor Tiewsoh.

Finally, the programmed was concluded by the singing of the National Anthem, Photo sessions and the academic procession returned to the robing room.
